Early Childhood (0-8years) is the most impressionable and crucial period in an individual's life. During these years children have a rapid physical, psychological, intellectual and social growth. This is a period of “Flowering of Self”. Recognizing the need for the development of

Two- Day National Webinar on EARLY CHILDHOOD CARE & EDUCATION on 22nd and 23rd July 2020

Children's personality, which has a strong bearing upon primary education, the CTE AMS runs two courses on Early Childhood Care and Education: 1-year Post graduate Diploma and 3-month Certificate Course. .

Early Childhood Care and Education often focuses on learning through play which posits that play meets the Physical, Intellectual, Language, Emotional and Social needs of children. Children learn more efficiently and gain more knowledge through activities such as drama, play, art, songs, dance and social games. It is important that Nurseries and Pre-Schools promote child development through various activities. At this stage children need to have nutritious food for the body built. It has been envisaged that children be provided with the necessary maturational and experiential readiness for meeting the demands of the primary education curriculum. Early Childhood Care and Education is important for holistic development of children. Early Childhood Care and Education is a Contemporary topic which interests various strata of society. Parents and Teachers should partner with each other in moulding the character of the early children.
