

Prof. P. Krishnaveni

Principal,
Andhra Mahila Sabha College of Teacher
Education, Osmania University Campus,
Hyderabad-500007

E-Mail: krishnavenimvpr@gmail.com

Prof. P. Krishnaveni is a distinguished academic leader, accomplished administrator, and veteran educator with over 32 years of extensive experience in the Indian education sector. She currently serves as the Principal of Andhra Mahila Sabha College of Teacher Education, Hyderabad, a premier NAAC-accredited institution known for its excellence in teacher education. She held the position of Principal from 2009 and is also currently in the same leadership role, reflecting the institution's continued confidence in her vision, experience, and administrative acumen.

Prof. Krishnaveni held key academic and administrative responsibilities as the Controller of Examinations and IQAC Coordinator. In these roles, she plays a vital part in maintaining academic standards, ensuring the integrity and transparency of examination processes, and leading quality assurance and institutional development initiatives aligned with national accreditation frameworks.

Prof. Krishnaveni possesses a strong multidisciplinary academic background. She holds a Ph.D. in Education, along with an M.Phil. (Education), M.Ed., and multiple postgraduate degrees, including M.A., M.A., and H.V., reflecting her depth of knowledge and academic versatility.

Her professional journey began with seven years of teaching at a Social Welfare Residential School, where she gained valuable insights into inclusive education and learner diversity. She subsequently dedicated over 25 years to teacher education, serving in B.Ed. colleges since her appointment as a lecturer in 2001. Throughout her career, she has played a significant role in mentoring and shaping future educators through innovative teaching practices and academic guidance.

A prolific academician, Prof. Krishnaveni has authored several books for Telugu Academy, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Open University (BRAOU), and Neelkamal Publications, contributing meaningfully to academic literature. She has also developed numerous e-content modules and video lectures for BRAOU and Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya initiatives, demonstrating her engagement with digital and distance education.

As a dedicated research guide, she has supervised over 300 M.Ed. students in their dissertation work, reflecting her commitment to nurturing research aptitude and academic rigor among postgraduate learners. She has also actively participated in and contributed as a Resource Person in numerous national and state-level seminars and conferences.

Prof. P. Krishnaveni has also played a significant role in academic administration and institutional processes beyond teaching and research. She has been actively involved in examination reforms, curriculum planning, and institutional quality enhancement practices, contributing to the strengthening of academic systems and governance. Her ability to integrate administrative efficiency with academic vision has supported the smooth functioning of institutional frameworks, particularly in areas related to assessment practices, accreditation processes, and student academic progression. Her contributions reflect a deep understanding of higher education systems and a sustained commitment to institutional excellence.

Under her dynamic leadership, Andhra Mahila Sabha College of Teacher Education has successfully organized numerous workshops, content enrichment programmes, state-level seminars, and refresher courses for in-service teachers, significantly contributing to continuous professional development in the teaching community. She has also played a key role as Coordinator for Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Open University (BRAOU) programmes, facilitating academic outreach and strengthening distance education initiatives. Her leadership reflects a commitment to bridging theory and practice, fostering academic engagement, and promoting lifelong learning among educators.

With her extensive expertise in academic leadership, quality assurance, curriculum development, and pedagogical innovation, Prof. Krishnaveni continues to strengthen institutional excellence and promote a culture of research and reflective practice. Her leadership remains instrumental in advancing teacher education and fostering the professional growth of future educators.

Prof. P. Krishnaveni stands as a pillar in the field of teacher education, whose dedication, vision, and scholarly contributions continue to leave a lasting impact on the academic community.
